At the meeting to be held on Thursday night heat it is hoped that an announcement will be made that rooms can be secured on the main street. If such proves to be the case and a sufficient number are present to warrant further action, officers for the ensuing year will be elected and immediate steps taken to start an active season's work, otherwise the present directors will feel compelled to close up the business Will the people of Prince Albert allow this?

The Regina "Leader" has now joined the fourth estate procession which was started some months ago for the purpose of assisting the Lieutenant Governor in the better management of his office. The "Leader" his without gloves and if its statements are based on facts the only fault that can now be found with it is the almost inexcusable silence it has maintained in the past.
